American craft enriches our homes, offices, public spaces, even our wardrobes. It contributes to our nation's economy, our balance of trade, and the fabric of our national history. It is original, beautiful and enduring, so let's celebrate and tell the world!

American Craft Week is a project of CRAFT (Craft Retailers & Artists for Tomorrow) in partnership with Craft in America. You can learn more about both organizations on their websites: www.craftonline.org and www.craftinamerica.org.
